CAPAC COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL JEAN BROWN ASSISTANT EDITOR CAPAC, MICHIGAN

Mrs. Sutherby not only performs the many various duties expected of a secretary but she also acts as a personal consultant, advisor, and friend to each of the 450 students of Capac High School.

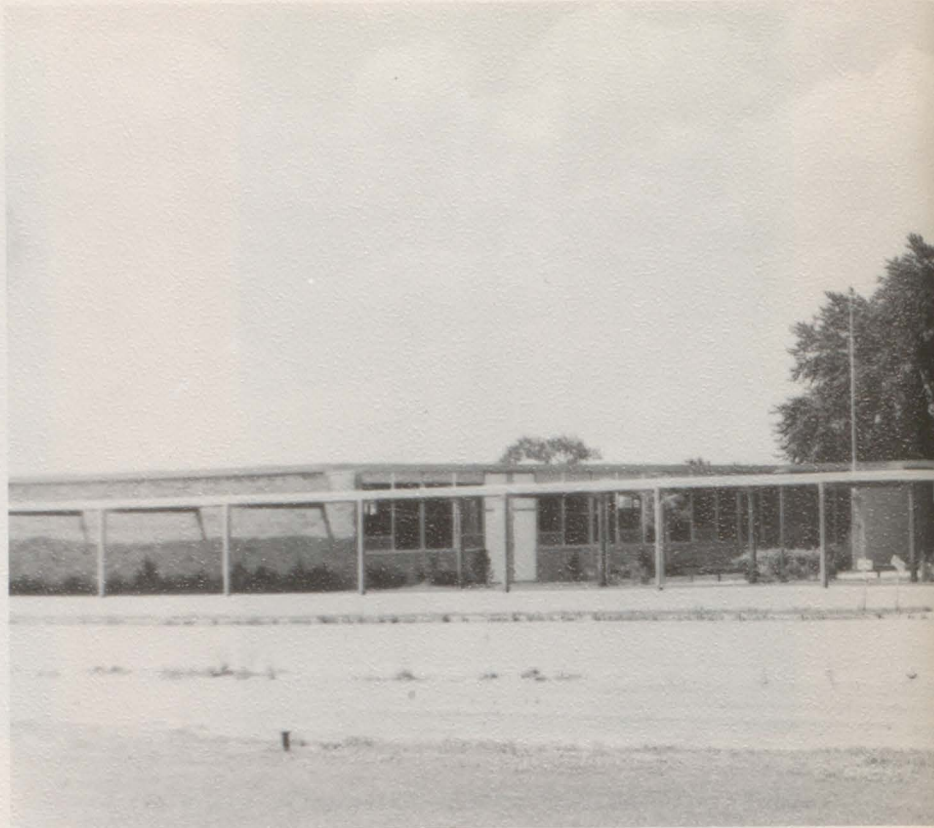

Without the aid and assistance of Mr. Leslie this yearbook would not be possible.

Being sponsor for the yearbook and Student Council since 1957 is a huge responsibility for one individual. We would like to extend at this time our thanks for his willingness to help the student body of Capac High.

WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN

As the years slip by, we spend many quiet moments reflecting upon our past experiences. We see them as the basic foundation for our future, yet, somehow as we add to this "foundation of life", this foundation still stands- waiting, unfulfilled. . .

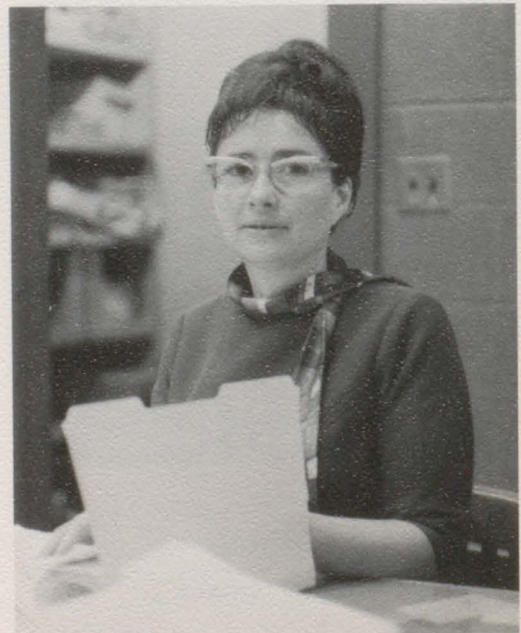

For, we've only just begun.

CLASS

OF

Homecoming week was a week filled with much excitement and tension for each class. Candidates for 1970-1971 Homecoming Queen were Dotty Clark, Ruth Hager, Jill Huston, Connie Nowak and June Smith. June Smith was elected by the student body to reign as Homecoming Queen. Our float, "Dryden Whoa," came in second place and we tied for the spirit jug with the juniors.

Highlight of the year was when anxious awaiting seniors received their pictures early in November after having them taken during the summer.

"Evening in Toyland" was chosen as our theme for the Christmas Ball. Chuck Bollaert and Lynn Foster were our King and Queen. The Christmas Ball proved to be very successful and everyone enjoyed themselves.

The traditional colors of royal blue and gold for caps and gowns were changed to our class colors of deep purple and white. The class song is "Born Free," and our class flower is a white carnation.

"So little done, so much to do"

1972

Mr. Donald Christie

Mr. Arden Nickerson

Mr. Michael Swartz

We opened the year with the election of our class officers and school representatives. Class officers are Dick Ellis, President; Linda Knop, Vice-president; Beth Clark, Secretary; Kathy Stuever, Treasurer.

We began working on our float for homecoming to the theme of "An Old Fashion Homecoming." With our spirits flying high we tied with the seniors for the "spirit jug." Linda Lumbardo represented our class as Princess.

Christmas proved rather festive as our class chose Marsha Spiller and Jerry Saelens as our Princess and Prince for the annual Christmas Ball.

The Junior Prom promises fun and hard work for the Juniors. We are hoping that everyone has an exciting time at "Oriental Gardens."

As the school year ends, we cannot help but think of all the fun we plan and hope to have again next year as Seniors.

We elected our class officers, they are Mark Bollaert, president; Karen Nettnay, vice president; Kathy Eldridge, secretary; Gary McLaren, treasurer.

Our first class decision was a style of class rings. Our Homecoming float, "Heap Big Victory Dinner", placed first. Connie Kersten was our homecoming princess.

The class all joined in on the Christmas fun and elected Harry Lewis, prince and Melanie Mazur, princess to represent our class at the Christmas ball.

We were honored at "The Sophomore Appreciation Dance" by the freshmen, in January in appreciation for the dance we gave them in November.

CLASS OF 1974

The Freshman class plunged into high life last September by electing Kurt Robinson, President; Kathy Doutry, Vice-President; Dianne Spiller, Secretary; and George Schone-man, Treasurer.

Our first endeavor was to construct a float for "An Old Fashion Homecoming." We showed much enthusiasm during spirit week, and participated in all the activities concerning the week.

We also selected a princess, Nancy Norwood, to represent our class on the queen's court.

The sophomores officially initiated us into the high school in November. We were to carry "stuffed" animals and wear white socks. The girls had to wear at least five pigtails and the boys parted their hair down the middle. We also were honored at a dance with the band, "Another World", presenting the music.

We thanked the Sophomore class by giving them an appreciation dance in January. Music was presented by two bands, "The Kalidascope" and "Another World."

Don Stange and Linda Hunter represented our class as prince and princess at the annual Christmas Ball, presented by the Senior Class.
